

15P Senior Leader Course (SLC) Distance Learning (Phase 1)

Special Information:

1. 556-15P40 (dL) Phase 1 must be successfully completed prior to graduation from 556-15P40 Phase 2 or 011-15P40 Phase 2.

a. Students must be enrolled in ATRRS in both Phase 1 and Phase 2 at the same time. Students can complete the dL Phase 1 before going to the resident Phase 2, but should have no more that 60 days (2 months) between the completion of the dL phase and the beginning of the resident phase.

b. Active Component Soldiers must be enrolled in both 556-15P40 (dL) Phase 1 and 556-15P40 Phase 2.

c. National Guard Soldiers must be enrolled in both 556-15P40 (dL) Phase 1 and 011-15P40 Phase 2. The dL phase is found in ATRRS school house code 611 (Fort Rucker NCO Academy). It is not in the ATRRS school code 961 for WAATS.

d. 556-15P40 (dL) Phase 1 is conducted via Computer-based Internet (hosted on the Army Learning Management System (ALMS)). To access this course on-line, follow these instructions:

NOTE: Ensure you are registered in ATRRS.

(1) Go to this URL (AKO): <https://www.us.army.mil>

(2) Login with your AKO UserID and Password or CAC.

(3) Click the Self Service Dropdown Arrow and select My Training and Click to proceed.

(4) Within the Army Learning Management Frame click the "Click Here" link or ALMS logo to enter the ALMS. (Click yes to the security warnings when they appear).

(5) You should see your course in the Current Enrollments Frame of the ALMS. Click Launch Now to open the course content.

(6) Send help requests to the Army Training Help Desk. You can call ALMS at DSL Help Desk 1-877-251-0730 for live ALMS help.

2. Soldiers attending the Aviation Operations Specialist SLC must complete The Composite Risk Management Operational Course (dL) prior to completing SLC.

a. The Composite Risk Management Operational Course (dL) is available through the Combat Readiness University at the US Army Combat Readiness Center website, <https://crc.army.mil>.

b. Soldiers must provide a printed certificate as proof of having completed the Composite Risk Management Operational Course (dL) prior to their SLC class end date.